First time offered in 45 years

This wonderful acreage estate has been tightly held and enjoyed since 1976 and is now offered to the market for the first time.

In a central location set down a long driveway providing privacy and serenity the single level family home could be renovated and extended.

There is a large level clear paddock at the rear of the estate that would be the perfect platform to build a palatial home and keep the existing house as a secondary residence.

This property is proudly and exclusively marketed with the award winning team at Lumby Hampson and we highly recommend an inspection of the property in this prestige
